CAPM Distinguished Contribution to CL Psychiatry in Canada Award

Purpose

This award is presented annually to an individual who, over the course of their career, has made a distinguished contribution to the field of Consultation-Liaison Psychiatry in Canada.

Award Criteria

Nominees must have demonstrated significant contribution in the form of; clinical work and initiatives, research, education, or administration and advocacy. Preferred candidates for the award will have made contributions in most, if not all, of these categories.

Eligibility

Nominees must be current members in good standing with CAPM, and have attended at least three CAPM Annual Meetings within the last five years. Additionally, nominees must have presented at a CAPM Annual Meeting or participated on the Board of Directors.

Nomination Process

Nominations must be received electronically by the annual deadline and include:

- A one-page cover letter written by the nominator, outlining the suitability of the applicant for the award.
- The nominee's current CV.
- Two letters of reference. At least one letter of reference must be from a CAPM member in good standing.

Review and Adjudication

Adjudication will be completed by a subset of CAPM members selected annually by the Board of Directors. The recipient will be chosen by consensus from among the nominations. Adjudication shall take place in camera, and the selection committee has the option to not confer the award in any given year, even if applications are received.

Recognition

The recipient will receive a suitably inscribed plaque in recognition of the accomplishment to be presented during the Annual Meeting. CAPM will maintain an official record of recipients online and at head office.

Deadline

July 31 of each year.
